Visit of Emergency Unit, New Territories South of the Hong Kong Police

Hong Kong Police Force is one of the most frequent working partners with the private security field. Security personnel often come across with officers from the Emergency Units of respective police regions which are the first dispatches to specific emergency calls. For our Members to have a personal experience with the police Emergency Unit, we have arranged a visit to the Base of the Emergency Unit, New Territories South, whereupon our Members can better understand the functionalities of such police unit.
